

European Knee Society 2016

Spring Training Course

31.03-01.04.2016, Berlin, Niemcy

W programie sesje tj.:

- Analysis of deformities
- Principles and technique in deformity correction
- Unicompartmental OA: Osteotomy vs. UKA
- Principles in UKA
- PF-replacement and combined PFJ/Uni
- Alternatives? Kinespring, Interpos. Spacers, Hemi-Cap
- What is the biomechanical goal in TKA?
- Indication: Is there any evidence?
- Patients expectations and outcome
- Implant position: What are we aiming for?
- Preoperative planning and patient preparation
- Approaches in TKA
- Navigation and PSI: Helpful or not?
- All-Femur first technique
- Extension-Gap first technique
- Managing the Varus-Knee
- Managing the Valgus-Knee
- Managing flexion contracture
- Managing patellofemoral problems
- Should I do my TKA as a one-day procedure?
- Should I preserve my ACL and PCL?
- Should I change my perioperative management? The ECG
- Should I do kinematic Alignment?
- Infection
- Loosening and bone loss
- Instability
- Malpositioning
- The stiff knee
- Systematic algorithm for painful UKA/TKA

W planie również sesja zatytułowana „My worst Case”.

Kontakt z organizatorem:

Professional Congress Organizer (PCO)
MCI Deutschland GmbH | MCI – Berlin Office
Markgrafenstrasse 56 | 10117 Berlin | Germany |
Tel: +49 (0)30 20 45 90 | Fax: +49 (0)30 20 45 950

Więcej informacji oraz rejestracja na stronie www.