

Interdisciplinary Symposium on Osteoporosis 2016

12-15.05.2016, Miami, USA

Wczesna rejestracja do 29.02.2016

Uczestnicy mają możliwość uzyskania punktów CME.

W programie tematy i sesje tj:

- Reducing Readmissions and Improving Patient Outcomes with Better Care Transitions
- The Pathophysiology of Osteoporosis and Fractures
- Assessing Fracture Risk: Using DXA, FRAX, TBS and other Risk Assessment Tools in Clinical Practice
- Safe Yoga & Pilates for Patients with Increased Fracture Risk
- Clinical Evaluation of Secondary Causes of Osteoporosis
- Rare Bone Conditions You Should Never Miss (Because They Are Treatable)
- Drug-Induced Osteoporosis
- Nutrition, Micronutrients, Supplements & Fads
- Assessment of Acute and Chronic Pain in the Elderly Patient with Osteoporosis and Fractures
- Pharmacologic, Nonpharmacologic and Interventional Approaches to Managing Pain in the Elderly Patient with Osteoporosis and Fractures
- Preventing Secondary Fractures with an FLS Program
- Mechanisms of Action of Osteoporosis & Anti-Fracture Therapies
- Historical Perspectives on the Development of Anabolic Therapy
- Fall Risk Assessment & Fall Prevention
- Does Menopausal Hormone Therapy Still Have a Role to Play in Osteoporosis Management?
- Vertebral Fractures and Implications for Treatment
- Making the Business Case for FLS
- Issues and Complications of Treatment
- Top 10 Questions Patients Ask and How to Answer Them
- Osteoporosis in Special Populations: Should You Treat? With What?
- Achieving Peak Bone Mass in Children
- Exercise Recommendations for the Older Adult Patient with Increased Fracture Risk

Więcej informacji oraz rejestracja na stronie www